The Wilkes County Barn Quilt Trail is made possible through a collaborative effort from the Wilkes County Quilters Guild and the Cultural Arts Council of Wilkes.

Wilkes County Quilters Guild

The Wilkes County Quilters Guild was formed in 1998 by a group of eighteen women. The purpose of the guild is to provide a forum to foster knowledge, diversified expression and the creation of an art form. The goal is to preserve the heritage of quilting, become a source of information and heritage for quilters, encourage excellence in quilting and related arts, support community service activities, and be a source of fellowship to people with a common interest.
